- 7.2 The use of the name, logo and/or official emblem of any of the Parties on any publication, document and/or paper is prohibited without the prior written approval of either Party.
- 7.3 The Parties agree that neither Party shall gain by virtue of this Memorandum of Understanding any rights of ownership or any other interest, right, or title of copyrights, patents, trade secrets, trade marks, or any other intellectual property rights owned by the other Party.
- 7.4 Notwithstanding the foregoing articles, the intellectual property rights in respect of any technological development, and any products and services development, carried out:
- (a) jointly by the parties or research results obtained through the joint activity effort of the Parties, shall be jointly owned by the Parties in accordance with the terms to be mutually agreed upon; and
 - (b) solely and separately by the Party or the research results obtained through the sole and separate effort of the Party, shall be solely owned by the Party concerned.

ARTICLE 8

CONFIDENTIALITY

- 8.1 Each Party shall undertake to observe the confidentiality and secrecy of documents, information and other data received from or supplied to, the other Party during the period of the implementation of this Memorandum of Understanding or any other agreements made pursuant to this Memorandum of Understanding.
- 8.2 For purposes of paragraph 8.1 above, such documents, information and data include any documents, information and data which is disclosed by a Party (the Disclosing Party) to the other Party (the Receiving Party) prior to, or after, the execution of the Memorandum of Understanding, involving technical, business, marketing, policy, know-how, planning, project management and other documents, information, data and/or solutions in any form, including but not limited to any document, information or data which designated in writing to be confidential or by its nature intended to be for the knowledge of the Receiving Party or if orally given, is given in the circumstances of confidence.
- 8.3 Both Parties agree that the provisions of this Article shall continue to be binding between the Parties notwithstanding the termination of this Memorandum of Understanding.

ARTICLE 9

PERSONAL DATA PROTECTION

- 9.1 During the course of dealings between the Parties and in connection with the performance of this Memorandum of Understanding, the Parties acknowledge that they need to process Personal Data (as defined under the applicable personal data protection laws of Malaysia and the Republic of Indonesia, including the Personal Data Protection Act 2010 of Malaysia and the Law of the Republic of Indonesia Number 27 of 2022 on Personal Data Protection) belonging to or supplied by each Party from time to time by electronic or paper-based means.
- 9.2 By entering into this Memorandum of Understanding, the Parties expressly and explicitly acknowledge and consent to the processing of such Personal Data by each Party for the purpose of performance of this Memorandum of Understanding and for all other purposes that are necessary, incidental or related to the performance of this Memorandum of Understanding. This includes:

- (a) processing of such Personal Data within and, where necessary, outside Malaysia;
- (b) transfer and disclosure of such Personal Data to third parties authorised by each Party within and, where necessary, outside Malaysia, provided that these third parties in turn undertake to keep such Personal Data confidential; and
- (c) transfer and disclosure of such Personal Data to any persons, authorities or regulators to whom the Parties are compelled, permitted or required under the law to disclose to.

For the purpose of this Article, the term "third parties" includes but is not limited to each Party's related companies, vendors, suppliers, business partners, professional advisers, agents, contractors, third party service providers, insurance companies, banks and financial institutions.

- 9.3 To the extent that a Party has disclosed the Personal Data of its employees, agents or other third parties to the other Party, the disclosing Party warrants and represents that it has obtained the relevant individual's consent to disclose such Personal Data to the other Party in accordance with this Article and for the purpose of the performance of this Memorandum of Understanding, and for all other purposes that are necessary, incidental or related to the performance of this Memorandum of Understanding.
- 9.4 The Parties warrant and represent that all Personal Data disclosed or to be disclosed to the other Party is accurate and complete, and that none of it is misleading or out of date as of the date of disclosure. The Parties shall promptly update each Party in the event of any change to such Personal Data

PROHIBITION OF CORRUPT PRACTICES

- 10.1 Conflict of Interest
 - 10.1.1 Neither UM nor any of its representatives shall give to, or receive from, IIUM or its representatives any commission, fee, rebate, or any gift or entertainment of value in connection with this Memorandum of Understanding.
 - 10.1.2 Each Party shall:
 - (a) Promptly notify the other Party of any violation of this clause; and

- (b) Repay or credit to the other Party any consideration received as a result of such violation.

10.1.3 In addition to the rights available under this Memorandum of Understanding, if any violation of this Article occurring prior to the date of this Memorandum of Understanding resulted directly or indirectly in a Party entering into this Memorandum of Understanding, the affected Party may, at its option, terminate this Memorandum of Understanding at any time and (despite any other provision of this Memorandum of Understanding) pay no compensation or reimbursement to the other Party after the date of termination.

10.2 Anti-Corruption

10.2.1 Each Party shall:

- (a) comply with all applicable anti-corruption laws and regulations of its respective country, including, without limitation, the Malaysian Anti-Corruption Commission Act 2009 and the applicable anti-corruption laws of the Republic of Indonesia, in connection with its conduct under this Memorandum of Understanding;
- (b) establish, maintain, and enforce throughout the term of this Memorandum of Understanding its own policies and procedures designed to ensure compliance with such laws; and
- (c) promptly notify the other Party of any request or demand for any undue financial or other advantage of any kind received in connection with this Memorandum of Understanding.

10.2.2 Each Party shall ensure that any associate or third Party engaged in the performance of obligations under this Memorandum of Understanding complies with all applicable anti-corruption laws of its respective country, including the Malaysian Anti-Corruption Commission Act 2009 and the Law of the Republic of Indonesia Number 19 of 2019 on the Second Amendment to Law Number 30 of 2002 concerning the Corruption Eradication Commission, and shall ensure that such associate is bound by written terms imposing equivalent obligations. Each Party shall remain responsible for the observance of such obligations by its own associates.

10.2.3 The Parties acknowledge and agree that any material breach of this Article 10.2 shall constitute a serious breach of this Memorandum of Understanding; provided that, prior to termination, the non-breaching

Party shall give written notice and allow a reasonable period for remedy where the breach is capable of remedy. Termination shall not apply to minor administrative non-compliance that does not involve wilful misconduct, fraud, or corruption.

ARTICLE 11

SUSPENSION

- 11.1 Each Party reserves the right for reasons of national security, national interest, public order or public health to suspend temporarily, either in whole or in part, the implementation of this Memorandum of Understanding which suspension shall take effect immediately after notification has been given to the other Party through diplomatic channels.

ARTICLE 12

GOVERNING LAW AND SETTLEMENT OF DISPUTES

- 12.1 This Memorandum of Understanding shall be implemented in accordance with the respective laws and regulations of Malaysia and the Republic of Indonesia. Nothing in this Memorandum of Understanding shall be construed as creating legally binding obligations under the domestic laws of either Party.
- 12.2 Any difference or dispute between the Parties concerning the interpretation and/or implementation and/or application of any of the provisions of this Memorandum of Understanding shall be settled amicably through mutual consultation and/or negotiations between the parties through diplomatic channels, without reference to any third party or international tribunal.

ARTICLE 13

AMENDMENT, VARIATION AND MODIFICATION

- 13.1 No amendment, variation, or modification to this Memorandum of Understanding shall be effective unless made in writing and duly signed by the Parties or its duly authorised representatives. It shall form part of this Memorandum of Understanding.
- 13.2 Such amendment, variation or modification shall come into force on such date as may be determined by the Parties by mutual agreement.
