Our scholarships can give you space and support for the things that matter during university, like being able to focus on your studies. Some scholarships can also give you a community – and we'll consider you for several when you apply.

Space to learn and grow

Studying in small classes with our global experts and working collaboratively in innovative spaces are just a few ANU experiences that will stimulate you to think differently and solve problems beyond your imagination.

Welcoming community

Our students come from diverse backgrounds – some are the first in their families to go to university – so you're bound to meet people like you. Everything on our vibrant campus will help you feel welcome, build networks and thrive in your career.
