

History

The Faculty of Economics is one of the Faculties at Unesa which is located in Unesa Ketintang. The Faculty of Economics, Unesa was founded in 2006. In the beginning, since 1964 this faculty was incorporated in the Teaching Faculty of Social Sciences (FKIS), which was then named IKIP or Surabaya Teacher Training and Education Institute. However, in 1977 through the Decree of the Minister of Education and Culture R.I.No.042 / O / 1977 the name of FKIS was changed to FPIPS (Faculty of Social Sciences Education). Based on the Presidential Decree No. 93 of 1999, IKIP Surabaya changed to Surabaya State University and the name FPIPS changed to the Faculty of Social Sciences (FIS). In 2006, through a letter issued by the Director General of Higher Education Number 761 / D / T / 2006 concerning the Opening of the Faculty of Economics, Unesa dated February 16, 2006 and Decree of the Unesa Rector No.050 / J37 / HK.01.23 / PP.03.02 / 2006 regarding the Separation of the Department of Economics Education and its Study Program from the Faculty of Social Sciences and the opening of the Faculty of Economics on March 16, 2006, the Faculty of Economics separated from the Faculty of Social Sciences. Until now, the Faculty of Economics has 9 Study Programs, including S1. Economic Education, S1. Accounting Education, S1. Commercial Administration, S1. Office Administration, S1 Management, D3 Accounting, S1 Accounting, S1 Economics and S1 Islamic Economics.
