

Memorandum of Agreement between
Da-Yeh University, Taiwan
and
State University of Malang, Indonesia

Da-Yeh University and State University of Malang have concluded this Memorandum of Agreement in the recognition of the mutual benefits according to their academic communities.

1. The purpose of this Agreement is to promote friendly relations through the development of academic collaboration between the two universities.
2. The collaboration shall be carried out, subject to availability of funds and the approval of each university, through such programmes or activities as:
 - (1) Joint research activities (including exchange of faculty members and research students)
 - (2) Joint teaching or supervision of students
 - (3) Staging of joint seminars, conferences and academic meetings
 - (4) Special academic programmes
 - (5) Education Abroad on the part of undergraduate and postgraduate students, including exchanges, internships, electives and practicum
 - (6) Exchange of academic materials and other information
 - (7) Collaborative academic programmes which may involve cultural activities and a strong field visit component. These may be for groups or for individuals on Independent Guided Study Programmes
 - (8) Joint collaborative Grant Proposals.
3. Faculty members of both universities will be encouraged to consult with each other and to develop specific plans for collaboration in any of the ways mentioned in Article 2 above.
4. Recognizing that the implementation of any form of academic collaboration depends on the availability of financial support, both universities shall use their best endeavours to identify and gain access to suitable sources of funding to support the activities proposed in this Agreement.
5. This Agreement shall be valid for a period of five years and will become effective from the date when signed by each side. Any amendment and/or modification of this Agreement will require written approval of the chief administrative officer of each university and shall be appended hereto. After the initial five year period, this Agreement may be reviewed and renewed by mutual consent every three years.
6. Either party reserves the right to terminate this Agreement upon six months written notice to each other.
